

St Tropez Hotel Offers Yacht Race Fans Best Seat in the House

A luxury hotel in St Tropez is offering a unique spectator experience for guests during the 2012 edition of the prestigious Les Voiles de Saint-Tropez yacht race.

The Hôtel Sezz Saint-Tropez is inviting visitors to take up a race-side seat aboard a chartered yacht or even a competition vessel during the event, which runs from September 29th to October 7th.

A diverse range of sailboats and motor yachts, ranging from vintage to ultra-modern, and up to 32 metres in length, will be available for guests seeking the ultimate insider's experience, while personal crew will be on hand to offer invaluable insight into the race.

They will then be transported back to dry land and the lavish confines of the 37-room Hôtel Sezz, which is surrounded by lush tropical gardens and a spacious central pool area.

Those preferring to remain at the hotel can indulge in the fully equipped Spa Sezz by Payot, offering a range of facials and body treatments using exclusive botanical products.

Founded in 1986, Les Voiles de Saint-Tropez has grown to become one of the major highlights of the Mediterranean yacht regatta season.
